CONGRESS!

Lively Talk Before the Banking Committee.

House Considering the Pension Appropriation Bill.

Japanes Troops Marching to Interior of China.

Canadian Ministry.

Washington, Dec. 14.—There was a spirited incident before the banking and currency committee to-day. Representative Walker, (Mass.), said he understood the program had been quietly agreed upon by which the currency bill would be considered by the democrats of the committee to-night, by the full committee to-morrow night, and be presented to the house Monday. Chairman Springer and this program was a mere surmise. All the committee had actually done was to agree to a meeting on Sunday night, it being understood that a final vote on the bill could then be taken. Walker thereupon moved that the committee should not consider such agreement. "We have been turning over this currency question for the last ten months," said Walker. "At the end of that time Senator Carondelet comes in with a bill which he tells us he dictated to me to his stenographer before committee room. No man living could prepare a measure affecting such vast interests in less than a week. Yet this is the bill that is to be reported off-hand. This haste is not coming to us as legislators. There should be a full consideration of the question without limit of time."

Walker's motion to reconsider was voted down by a strict party division; yes, Walker, Bissell, and Johnson of Indiana, republicans. Nays, Sperry, Cox, Ellis, Cobb of Missouri, Warner, Black of Georgia, and Springer, democrats. Johnson said he at first agreed to the meeting to-morrow night because he knew a majority had virtually agreed on the bill and was ready to push it through the committee.

FOR THE BASE BALLISTS.

Outside Enthusiastic Favor a Terrestrial Amateur League.

Indications are now bright for the organization of a territorial amateur baseball league next season, and several letters received from enthusiasts by the local manager favor Cerrillos, Santa Fe and Las Vegas on the north, with Albuquerque, San Marcial, Socorro or Gallup on the south. It is a positive fact that the Altimontes will reorganize in the early spring, while the citizens have as authorities from Mayor Gossell and Editor Belli, of Cerrillos, that the Little Pittsburgs of that city will get into line as early as next April. Las Vegas and San Marcial can always be depended upon with some kind of a club, but Managers Carroll and Dixon, respectively, will no doubt have better amateur ball representatives on the diamond field, for next season San Marcial will come to the front, and a personal guarantee was given by general Harry Gray, the manager of last year's team, on his recent visit to the city, that the club to represent San Marcial next season will be strictly San Marcial players. J. J. Keegan, the manager of the Cerrillos club, gradually recovering from the effects of the recent election, and a letter is soon expected from him on the subject of forming the territorial amateur baseball. If Cerrillos don't go in, Socorro, the Gem City, Magdalena and Socorro range mountains, will undoubtedly lock horns with the league; the team cannot miss the opportunity to receive the benefits to be derived from free and generous advertising.

Brutality at Los Candelarios.

The little town of Los Candelarios, just above Old Albuquerque, has the bloody record of other towns for the past week. Last Sunday night, Antone and Rafael Candelario engaged in a dispute with Primitivo Nuñez and Juan Garcia y Garcia over the title of a piece of land. The quarrel was bitter, until finally Nuñez and Garcia attacked Antonio Candelario and beat him up unmercifully, dislocating his shoulders, breaking one of his legs and bruising his face in a horrid manner. A warrant was sworn out against Nuñez and Garcia, charging them with simple assault and battery. They were arrested by Constable Pritchett and placed under $50 bond each to appear for trial Saturday. Nuñez and Garcia, then secured a postponement of the trials until the 24th. This afternoon new warrants were issued against Nuñez and Garcia, charging them with assault with intent to kill, and Constable Pritchett will arrest the brutal assailants this afternoon. Dr. Hope was called upon to attend Candelario before his death, for he is also injured internally. The victim is about 60 years old.

Night King.

Last evening, a quiet wedding took place on Kelleher avenue, the contracting parties being M. D. Knight and Mrs. Ellen King. Rev. T. C. Beattie was the officiating clergyman, and only a few immediate friends being present to witness the marriage service. William Hye and Miss Jessie Mitchell acted as best man and bridesmaids. Soon after the opening of Rupre's orchestra, of which Mr. Knight is the cornetist, arrived and rendered excellent music, and enjoyed with others a palatable spread of good things. Many of the guests, including the orchestra, remained until the midnight hour and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mr. Knight will shortly engage in the house painting business.

Verdict of Guilty.

The verdict of the jury in the Bell ranch murder trial Saturday evening, was that Florence Parras was guilty in the second degree, while the case was not made a stick against Manuel Chavez. The verdict was reached under instructions from the bench, though it was understood that it must be murder in the first degree or acquittal of defendants.—Las Vegas Optic.

DEBS CONVICTED!

President of the American Railway Union Found Guilty.

The Opinion of the Court on the Case.

MASKED BURGLARS ATTEMPT TO ROB A TEXAS STORE.

SUICIDE OF A VETERAN.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—"Guilty as charged," was the finding announced today by Federal Judge William Woods against President Eugene V. Debs, of the American Railway Union. The same finding was reached against the other American Railway Union leaders on trial.

The finding of the court is that the defendants are guilty of contempt, but any punishment inflicted would not be cumulative. In other words, there were two cases before the court, one for contempt and the other for violation of the federal statutes, the latter is merged into the former.

Judge Woods' opinion overruling the claim of the defense that the injunction against the A. R. U. leaders was invalid, on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction to determine a case in which an injunction was ordered, and that though possessed of such jurisdiction, the court lacked organization to make the order in question, was very long and cited many authorities. The court held that the same protection given commerce on the rivers can be extended, under the law, to commerce on railroads. Referring to the contention that the act of July 2, 1890, was directed wholly at the trusts and not against the organizations of labor in any form, Judge Woods pointed out that workingmen, if they conspired with capitalists to prevent the moving of Pullman cars, would be guilty of conspiracy, and it would be absurd to say they would not be equally guilty if they did the same without the aid of capitalists. Judge Woods held that defendants did deliberately violate the order of the court by directing strikers to intimidate men from taking their places. Admonitions against being sent out as defendants, but it was reported, and Mr. Robinson, who happened to come to the city during the week, was shown the item. He promptly said that it would have been impossible for a reporter to have interviewed Mr. Walker in New York, as he has not been there during the present month. By wire Mr. Walker was communicated with, and his response, received this morning, is as follows:

"The statement to which you refer in your wire of the 12th is a great surprise to me. Of course I never said anything of the kind. You may deny the alleged statement in the strongest terms. The report is simply ridiculous."

The people of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico have enough burdens to bear, and it may well be understood that the new thoroughly that they do not propose to see an unfair light placed upon our varied resources, which will readily triumph in spite of any disadvantages that seem inexplicable to the ordinary reader.
